

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28794 / HCR014

This resolution affirms that the Idaho Legislature recognizes that in a free society, that the integrity of personal liberty and fundamental human rights should always be protected. That no mandate or mechanism in Idaho law would ever permit or justify the use of forced immigrations, vaccinations, inoculations, or genetic modulations of any person, even during times of exigency or emergency, such as the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. That the legislature shall oppose efforts by any person or entity, including the federal government, to require, mandate, or force any person to receive immunizations, vaccinations, inoculations, medical procedure, or genetic modulations.

FISCAL NOTE

There will be no impact on the General Fund. Similarly, there will be no fiscal impact on local governments.
